Pursuant to a congressional request, GAO reviewed various matters relating to new personnel at the Executive Office of the President (EOP), focusing on: (1) the propriety of retroactive personnel appointments and salary adjustments; and (2) EOP employees compliance with public financial disclosure reporting requirements. GAO found that: (1) the individuals that received retroactive appointments were entitled to receive pay for their work; (2) 12 of the 20 retroactive pay increases were proper under the Presidents authority; (3) the remaining retroactive pay increases were questionable and inconsistent with generally applicable federal personnel rules; and (4) 14 of 147 new EOP employees did not file required financial disclosure reports in a timely manner. This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
